WOMEN IN DISTRESS

February 2010

Dear Friend:

For 36 years, Women In Distress has been providing victims of domestic violence with safe shelter, crisis intervention and family resources, all while working to educate the community through intervention and advocacy.

The Look At Me Now event, to be held on March 10, 2010, was created in 2008 to celebrate the accomplishments of domestic violence survivors in the organization's Self Esteem Support Group. Most of all, this ZERO budget event gives the approximately 50 women a place to celebrate themselves by dressing up, having their make-up and hair done, mingling, eating and dancing, walking a red carpet and performing for an audience. Each woman leaves with flowers, gifts, and renewed spirit – as does everyone involved.

We hope that you or your business would to support this very special event by donating items or services including decorations, entertainment, technical equipment, food, beverages and/or gift certificates. All contributions are tax deductible.

Established in 1974, Women In Distress of Broward County, Inc. is the only nationally accredited, state-certified, full service domestic violence center serving Broward County. We are certified by the Florida Department of Children & Families and nationally accredited by the Council of Accreditation (COA).

Donations may be submitted to our volunteer representatives or sent c/o Look at Me Now to Women In Distress, P.O. Box 676, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 33302. Please make checks payable to Women In Distress of Broward County, Inc., with Look at Me Now Fund in the memo field. Very importantly, we ask you to fill out a Donation Form to help us keep accurate records.

If you any questions regarding Look At Me Now and what you can do to help us make it a success, please call 954-760-9800, ext. 1228.

Thank you for joining us in recognizing these participants. Your generous contribution is helping make this joyful event a tradition at Women in Distress.

Sincerely,

The Look At Me Now Committee
